the closure of the meeting at which they are elected and remain in office until the closure of the following ordinary meeting of the Conference of the Parties, including for any intervening extraordinary meeting.

6. At its third meeting, the Conference of the Parties elected one president and nine vice presidents from among the representatives present at the meeting to serve as officers from the closure of the third meeting of the Conference of the Parties until the closure of the fourth meeting, as follows:

President: Rosa Vivien Ratnawati (Indonesia)

Vice-Presidents: Anahit Aleksandryan (Armenia)

Oarabile Serumola (Botswana)

Roger Baro (Burkina Faso)

Alison Dickson (Canada)

Angela Rivera (Colombia)

Marie-Claire Lhenry (France)

Bethune Morgan (Jamaica)

Karmen Krajnc (Slovenia)

W. T. B. Dissanayake (Sri Lanka)

7. Also at its third meeting, the Conference of the Parties agreed that the rapporteur for the fourth meeting of the Conference of the Parties would be designated by the Bureau during the intersessional period. At its first meeting, on 3 February 2020, the Bureau unanimously elected Ms. Angela Rivera as Rapporteur for the fourth meeting of the Conference of the Parties.

8. At its fourth meeting, in accordance with rule 22 of the rules of procedure, the Conference of the Parties is to elect to the Bureau for its fifth meeting a president and nine vice-presidents, one of whom is to act as rapporteur, from among the representatives of the parties present at the meeting. To that end, two nominations from each United Nations regional group should be submitted to the secretariat no later than the second day of the in-person segment of the fourth meeting.

9. In accordance with both paragraph 3 of rule 22 of the rules of procedure and past practice, for the purposes of regional rotation the president of the Bureau for the fifth meeting of the Conference of the Parties is expected to be elected from among the Central and Eastern Europe States.

10. The chair of the Implementation and Compliance Committee is to be a member ex-officio of the Bureau.

B. Members of the Implementation and Compliance Committee

11. Pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 of rule 3 of the rules of procedure for the Implementation and Compliance Committee, as adopted in decision MC-2/4, the Committee is to consist of 15 members, nominated by parties and elected by the Conference of the Parties, with due consideration for equitable geographical representation based on the five United Nations regional groups. The members of the Committee are to have competence in a field relevant to the Convention, and the membership is to reflect an appropriate balance of expertise.

12. Paragraph 3 of rule 3 of the rules of procedure for the Committee sets out the following procedures for the election of members of the Committee:

The first members of the Committee shall serve from the end of the first ordinary meeting of the Conference of the Parties until the end of the third ordinary meeting of the Conference of the Parties. At its third ordinary meeting, the Conference of the Parties shall re-elect ten members from among the first members of the Committee for one term, and elect five new members for two terms. The Conference of the Parties shall, at each ordinary meeting thereafter, elect for two terms new members to replace those members whose period of office is about to expire.

13. At its third meeting, the Conference of the Parties elected the following members of the Implementation and Compliance Committee:

From the African States:

14. The Conference of the Parties elected for two terms six new members of the Committee, from the following countries: Chile, Croatia, Finland, Japan, Jordan and Zambia. The remaining nine members were re-elected for one term starting from the closure of the third meeting of the Conference of the Parties until the closure of the fourth meeting of the Conference of the Parties.

15. At its fourth meeting, in accordance with rule 3 of the rules of procedure for the Committee, the Conference of the Parties is to elect for two terms nine new members of the Implementation and Compliance Committee to replace those members whose period of office is about to expire. It is to be noted that, pursuant to paragraph 5 of rule 3, a member is not to serve for more than two consecutive terms. Nominations from each United Nations regional group should be submitted to the secretariat no later than the second day of the in-person segment of the fourth meeting of the Conference of the Parties.

C. Members of the Governing Board of the Specific International Programme

16. Pursuant to paragraph 1 of rule 3 of its rules of procedure, the Governing Board of the Specific International Programme is to consist of 10 members. Each of the five United Nations regions is to nominate two members through their respective Bureau representatives.

17. In accordance with paragraph 2 of rule 3, the first members of the Board were to serve until the third meeting of the Conference of Parties. Thereafter, the members were to be nominated every two years by regional groups and their membership confirmed by the Conference of the Parties. To that end, the two nominations from each United Nations regional group should be submitted to the secretariat no later than the second last day of the in-person segment of the fourth meeting of the Conference of the Parties. No member is to serve on the Governing Board for more than two consecutive terms.

18. At its third meeting, the Conference of the Parties confirmed the following members of the Governing Board of the Specific International Programme:

From the African States:

Olubunmi Olusanya (Nigeria)
